Corporate Responsibility
How we do business

• We manage our business in a responsible way to maximise sustainable development opportunities for host nations.

• We are committed to ensuring long-term benefits to local people and economies where we operate.

• The foundation of shared prosperity is to be a successful and profitable company, so we can meet our obligations to governments, employees and suppliers and generate returns.

• Stakeholder engagement is critical for our operations and our approach to elements such as local content or EHS, directly affects our ability to run our business successfully.
Open, transparent disclosure

• We are committed to transparent disclosure of payments to governments and other stakeholders in the countries in which we operate.

• Revenue transparency and disclosure enables a country’s citizens to hold their government and Tullow to account.

• Increased transparency helps to manage expectations of the impact the discovery of oil can have and over what timeframe.

• We are taking the lead in our support for disclosure of payments to government and acting ahead of regulatory changes.

• In our 2012 CR Report we are disclosing our payments to major stakeholders, including all payments and taxes to governments, monetary or in kind.

Full details in the 2012 CR Report, due out at the end of May.
